Our Healthy Living Week!

On Tuesday the 20th May, Year 3 and 4 had a healthy living day. We learnt about a balanced diet and played a game. I was in the fourth group so I had to wait a while. Finally I got to go in to the hall and make a healthy vegetable salad wrap. I put peppers, cucumber, lettuce, carrot and tomato, in my wrap. After I had done that I got to make a flap jack and in it we put sultanas and chopped up apple. Then we had to put them in the oven and wait twenty minutes until they were baked. Last week we also found out about healthy eating when we went to Toby Carvery. We did blind food tasting and played games. Finally we had a delicious hot lunch with vegetables, meat, potatoes and gravy.

MINIBEAST STORY INSIDE!

SATS are over!!!!

After one long, hard working week, Year 6 have finally completed their SATS! York class were the first class to have a different experienced SATS week; there wasn't a science SAT and calculators weren't allowed on any maths tests. The whole class did really well and tried their hardest. Suzi, aged 11 said, 'it was hard but we all got through it in the end.' We would like to say a big well done to all the class and make sure they relax!

Loom that band

Loom bands are very popular at them moment. People love making them! They are bracelets made from rubber bands and are extremely nice to wear. They are very fun and addictive to make. I would strongly recommend them. You could also win a packet of loom bands if you buy this newspaper. Did you know if you find a golden ticket, a loom band could be one of the prizes? We also have a mystery prize!

The Lonely Butterfly

I fly alone without love and no one wants me. I'm so sad and I'm scared of the world. My wings ache once again while I search for a dry, warm place to sleep for the night, so I can get my energy for my endless search for a home tomorrow.

Yes! A place to sleep. I have found an old abandoned barn. It is so dark, dusty and creepy. Will I be able to rest in such unhygienic conditions? However, I feel scared that the whole barn will collapse on me in my sleep. I will rest now if I can.

It's the morning now and I'm so annoyed it's raining! How can this horrid search get any worse? I will take my chances in the cold, damp rain.

It hurts to fly and is hard to breath. No! Now it is hailing and my wings can't go on any more. Someone help me!

Will the beautiful, lonely butterfly find friends and a home? Will she fly in the sunshine?

A Roald Dahl special

The Sweet Shop Prank

Roald Dahl and his friends loved sweets and fortunately for them there was a sweet shop on the way to school. The sweets there were mouth-watering and sumptuous but the sweet shop owner was not! She had horrible, dirty hands that she never washed and every time Roald and his friends bought some sweets, she would pick them up with her disgusting, dirty hands. But Roald had had enough, he had to stand up to her...

Finally he had it, he finally had it.

“What is it, what is it?” exclaimed his friends. “It’s a...

“What are you going to do?” they asked.

“You’ll see,” he sniggered.

Aaaahgh!!!!!! Roald and his friends were walking down the road when they heard a distant scream coming from the sweet shop. “What do you think it could be?” said his friends.

Something a bit, squeaky!” he chuckled mischievously.
