

EYFS specialist required for growing multi-academy trust

The Diocese of Ely Multi-Academy Trust (DEMAT) is a large MAT recently praised by OfSTED operating across Cambridgeshire, Peterborough, West Norfolk and Suffolk. It manages a range of schools in market towns, cities and rural areas.

We are seeking to recruit an Early Years Foundation Stage specialist who is knowledgeable and experienced, who can inspire greatness in our teachers and who shares our vision for achieving the best possible outcomes for children.

The role will provide demonstrable support to schools across the Multi Academy Trust, where particular areas of responsibility will include:

- Providing school-based consultancy, including teaching demonstration lessons, supporting the planning and delivery of lessons and the modelling of best practice to individuals and schools
- Being an excellent, current practitioner, with a track record of outstanding teaching in your specialist curriculum area
- Supporting the development of curriculum strategy across DEMAT
- Coaching and mentoring colleagues in order to improve practice
- Updating headteachers, DEMAT officers and board members on the effectiveness of provision for pupils across the trust
- Preparing data on performance in specific curriculum areas for presentation to the DEMAT board and other stakeholders
- Providing central briefings and training
- Reviewing policies related to the curriculum area and advising on implementation
- Providing in-school training

You will be expected to maintain your own level of skill and knowledge, keeping up to date with local and national developments.

The post holder will report to the School Improvement Director and will be expected to be deployed across DEMAT, so the role will involve travel and occasional evening meetings.

In return we can offer a salary of £38,000 per annum plus a range of pension benefits, together with 25 days holiday a year plus bank holidays and Christmas shut down.

To discuss details of the post please contact Owen Rhodes, School Improvement Director, by email at Owen.Rhodes@demat.org.uk

To apply, please download an application form from our website: <http://demat.org.uk/vacancies-in-our-schools> and return by email to: Joanne.Patterson@DEMAT.org.uk by 23rd February 2018 at midday.

The Diocese of Ely Multi-Academy Trust (DEMAT) is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all suitably qualified persons regardless of their race, sex, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age. We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. Appointments will be subject to satisfactory medical checks, references and an enhanced DBS check.
